above appeal. Furthermore, during first week of January, I am suffering illness and the Doctor had advised me to take bed rest at least three weeks. I submit that after recovering from my illness, I contacted my Chennai counsel and the above appeal had filed on 21.04.2021.....'

3. Mr.V.R.Anna Gandhi, learned counsel on record for petitioner / appellant would submit that the delay was not intentional or dilatory and therefore, the same may be condoned.

4. On the other hand, Mr.C.Selvaraj, learned Additional Government Pleader for respondents 1 and 2 would submit that the petitioner ought to have been more diligent and moreover, the grounds mentioned in the supporting affidavit are not sufficient to condone the delay.

5. In view of the aforementioned submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner / appellant and the reasons articulated in the supporting affidavit, in our considered opinion and in the interest of substantial justice, the delay can be condoned.
