Challenging the common judgment passed in A.S.Nos.11, 12 and 14 of 2015, the petitioner preferred the above Second Appeals, however there is a delay of 134 days in representing the above second appeals arose. Hence, the present petitions have been filed to condone the delay in representing the second appeals.

2. Mr.S.Parthasarathy, learned counsel for petitioner submitted that the above Second Appeals were returned with certain corrections and also to file a certified copies of judgment and decree of trial court. He would submit that since the certified copies of judgment and decree was filed before the Appellate Court, he applied for fresh certified copies, however , there is a delay of 134 days arose in representing the above second appeals and the said delay caused is neither willful nor wanton, but for the above said reasons. Accordingly, he has filed the above petitions.
