The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, and 506(i) of IPC r/w Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.155 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and the petitioners are same villages and also neighbour of the agricultural land owners. On the date of occurrence, when the defacto complainant went to her agricultural land, at that time, cows are grazing the crops and the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, for which, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log on head, abused with filthy language and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence and it is a case and a case in counter. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant for grazing of cows in the defacto complainant's agricultural land, for which, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log and also threatened him with dire consequences. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial
