Crl.O.P.No.8674 of 2024

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379, 430 IPC and 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act in Crime No.107 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused are alleged to have transported 1 unit of river sand illegally by using lorry. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that without prejudice to his contentions, the petitioner is prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- towards any charitable organization or association. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the quantity of river sand involved is 1 unit. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned Counsel on either side and also of the fact that there is no previous case against him, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions;

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the Registered Advocate Clerk Association, Vellore District and on such receipt and receipt of
