T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.157 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 29.03.2024, when the defacto complainant was loading bricks, the petitioners interfered with the loading work and there was a wordy quarrel, during which the petitioners damaged JCB, attacked the defacto complainant with a stick and pelted stone and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they are the brothers family of the defacto complainant and they have already pending civil suit in respect of family property belonged to the father Mohanasundaram, for which, RDO enquiry was also conducted. He further submits that they have nothing to do with the alleged offence and it is a case and a case in counter. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the defacto complainant was loading bricks, the petitioners interfered with the loading work and there was a wordy quarrel, during which the petitioners damaged JCB, attacked the defacto complainant with a stick and pelted stone and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial

Magistrate No.I, Poonamallee, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
