The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.68 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution, as per the defacto complainant is that he is running a roadside chips stall and the petitioner demanded one hundred rupees from him, but he refused to give the said amount. While so, on 01.04.2024, the petitioner and the other accused persons came to the chips stall, abused him with filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant. It is further alleged that the petitioner poured hot oil on the defacto complainant's hands, resulting in burn injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and no way connected with the alleged offence.
