4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner and his brother purchased cigarette in the shop of the defacto complainant and refused to give money for the same, as a result, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and also damaged the shops. He further submits that the petitioner has two previous cases pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, submitted that without prejudice to the rights, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of crime number and also submitted that the petitioner has no objection in the amount being released in favour of the de-facto complainant.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel that the petitioner without prejudice to his rights is volunteered to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the credit of the Crime Number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned XVIII Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Saidapet, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
