The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Section 379, 430 of IPC, in Crime No.138 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners along with other accused had illegally transported one unit of river sands without any valid license. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent person and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners, on their own volition, are ready and willing to contribute a sum of Rs.15,000/- to the Registered Advocate Clerk

Association, Vellore District. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioners along with other accused had illegally transported one unit of river sand without any permission. He further submitted that there is two previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submission made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the Judicial Magistrate No.V, Vellore, Vellore District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) each, with two
