The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 448, 294(b), 323, 506(ii) IPC r/w 4 of TNPWH Act, in Crime No.270 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute regarding the payment of the borrowed amount. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He also stated that due to payment of the borrowed amount by the second petitioner to the defacto complainant and the same was refused to give, a false complaint has been lodged against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that there was a dispute with regard to the payment of the borrowed amount, as a result, the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant. He further submits that the petitioners has no previous case pending against them. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruttani, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the
