The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No. Not known of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has borrowed a sum of Rs.4,71,000/- from the defacto complainant's daughter, but the petitioner did not repay the said amount, for which, the defacto complainant went to the petitioner's house, at that time, the family members of the petitioner abused and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that due to sudden medical expenses, the petitioner could not repay the said amount. He further submits that he is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner borrowed a sum of Rs.4,71,000/- from the defacto complainant's daughter, when same was questioned, the family members of the petitioner abused and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Tiruvallur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two
