ORDER

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that inspite of his letter dated 04.03.2024, he has not received any instruction from the legal heirs of the deceased petitioner and therefore he is constrained to report “No instructions”. The learned counsel has also produced the death certificate of the deceased petitioner.

2. As the writ petitioner is deceased and the legal heirs are not substituted, the writ petition is dismissed as abated. In any event, the legal heirs of the deceased petitioner are given liberty to implead themselves and prosecute the writ petition, if so advised. The Writ petition is therefore dismissed as abated.
