The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.65 of 2024 on the file of the respondent/police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner holds a Diploma in Computer Science and is currently pursuing studies in Artificial Intelligence and full stack development at Purdue University through Fita Coaching Academy. In order to take a break from their busy work schedule, they attended a party at Radison Blue Hotel on 14.04.2024. During the midnight, a disturbance occurred involving certain individuals who were engaged in a drunken brawl. Unfortunately the petitioner got caught in the middle of the conflict and crossfire between these rival groups. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that he is innocent and denies the involvement in causing damage or harm during the party. It was actually the other party involved who caused the damage and injuries to the opposing side. The petitioner's only intention was to mediate and calm the situation to bring normalcy. He is an innocent and did not use anything or cause damage to the party. He is a law abiding citizen and has not committed any offence as alleged by the complainant. He is ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.
