The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 506(2) of IPC, in Crime No.185 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, with regard to property dispute, there was a wordy quarrel, for which, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are no way connected with the alleged offence as stated by the prosecution. He further submits that due to property dispute, the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that they are ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that due to previous enmity, with regard to property dispute, there was a wordy quarrel, for which, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant. He further submits that the petitioner has no previous case pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by both counsels and the fact that the petitioners without prejudice to their rights are volunteered to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- to the credit of the Crime Number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Krishnagiri, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the
