The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 427, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.19 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant's families, there was a wordy quarrel between them, for which the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with stick and iron rod. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to land dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that it is a case and a case in counter. He further submits that due to land dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with iron rods and sticks. He further submits that the petitioner has no previous case pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.2, Attur, Salem District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned
