The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 3(2)(a),4(2)(a), 5(1)(a) & 7(1)(a) of Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 in Crime No.569 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was standing near a Tea-shop, at that time, the petitioner running a SPA under the name and style of “Pearl View Medi”, asked the defacto complainant to massage and when he refused, the petitioner abused him and also criminally intimidated him. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any Charitable Purpose as may be directed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner who is running a spa, approached the defacto complainant to massage, but later on he came to understand that he is running a brothel house. He further submits that the petitioner has no previous pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also considering the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable trust, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned XIII
