The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 307, 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.54 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are close relatives. While so, on 05.03.2024, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, for which, the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden logs and knives. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, for which the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden logs and knives. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by both counsels and also the fact that the petitioner without prejudice to his rights is volunteered to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the credit of the Crime Number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Ambattur, on condition that the
