2. The case of the petitioners is as follows:

The first Petitioner and the respondent are husband and wife and the second petitioner is their son. The marriage of the first petitioner and the respondent was solemnized on 19.01.2018 as per Hindu rites and customs. Out of the wedlock, the second respondent was born to them. The petitioners are living in her parental home. Therefore, the petitioner filed a maintenance case before the Family Court, Pennagaram. During pendency of the maintenance case, the first petitioner filed a interim maintenance and after hearing the arguments and on a perusal of the materials, the said maintenance petition was allowed in part by directing the respondent/husband to pay a sum of Rs.2500/- per month to each of the petitioners as interim maintenance. As against the said order of learned Judge, Family Court, the petitioner has filed the present Revision Case before this Court.

3. The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that without going into the merits of the case, this Court may direct the learned Judge, Family Court to dispose the main case within the reasonable time as fixed by this Court.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and perused the materials available on record. Since no adverse order is passed against the respondent, the presence of the respondent is dispensed with.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and in view of the limited request sought for by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to pass the following orders:

1. The respondent is directed to deposit the maintenance amount as ordered by the Family Court on or before 5th of every English calendar month and he is further directed to pay the entire arrears to the petitioners, within a period of four weeks, if not already paid.

2. The learned District cum Judicial Magistrate, Pennagaram, shall pass orders in MC.No.04/2020 within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order;

6. With the above modification, this criminal revision case is disposed of. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed. The petitioner is at liberty to file an additional document before the trial Court.
