Crl.O.P.No.11321 of 2024

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioners seek anticipatory bail in Crime No.278 of 2024 registered by the respondent Police for the offences under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(2) of IPC.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a family dispute between the brother-in-law of the Defacto-Complainant and his wife and when the husband of the Defacto Complainant prevented them from quarrelling, the Petitioners came to the spot and abused the Defacto Complainant's husband in a filthy language, attacked him with a wooden log and stone on his stomach and also by sprinkling chilli powder on his face, due to which he sustained injuries. and also threatened him with dire consequences. Based on the complaint, FIR has been registered against the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against him for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners abused the husband of the defacto Complainant in a filthy language, attacked and also threatened them with dire consequences. He would also submit that the injury sustained is simple in nature, however, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side).

6. Taking all the factors into consideration and the overt act as against these petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Gingee, on condition that the petitioners shall execute
