The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 352 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.184 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 18.04.2024 at 17.00 hours, one Prabhakaran lodged a complaint against the petitioner and another stating that after finishing his work he went in bike. At that time the petitioner rash drive the bike and the defacto complainant advice the petitioner and another one. Hence, the petitioner cursed the defacto complainant in filthy language and wordy quarrel happened between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and the above said two persons caused a simple injury to the defacto complainant using brick stone. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.
