Crl.O.P.No.11364 of 2024

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioners seek anticipatory bail in Crime No.727 of 2023 registered by the respondent Police for the offences under Sections 294(b), 324, 506(2) of IPC.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a land dispute, the petitioners attacked the defacto Complainant and his father and abused them in a filthy language. Hence, the defacto Complainant preferred a complaint before the respondent police. Based on the complaint, FIR has been registered against the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them for statistical purpose. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners attacked the defacto Complainant and his father and abused in a filthy language and he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side).

6. Taking all the factors into consideration and the overt act as against these petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Gummidipoondi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the
