4. The learned Government Advocate stated that the petitioner had committed penetrative sexual assault on the victim girl many times, due to which she had become pregnant and gave birth to a female child. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. A perusal of the statement recorded under Section 164 of Cr.P.C of the victim child very clearly shows that she had reiterated the statements in the complaint.

6. Considering the grave nature of offence charged against the petitioner and considered the facts and circumstances of the case , this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
