Crl.O.P.No.11643 of 2024

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 4(1)(a) and 4(1-A) of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act, 1937 in Crime No.297 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 01.05.2024, when the respondent Police was in regular patrol duty, the petitioner was found to be in possession of McIlene Brandy 27 bottles each contains 180 ml, Old Chef Deluxe Branch 52 bottles each contains 180 ml and Black Pearl Brandy 3 bottles each contains 180 ml. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions he would submit that without prejudice to her rights and defence, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a substantial amount to any charitable organisation as may be directed by this Court and he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of prohibited liquor and there are two previous cases as against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. In order to curb the illegal activities of selling illicit arrack and the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner shall be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand Only) as non refundable deposit to the credit of "District Legal Services Authority, Thiruvallur District, without prejudice to her rights and contentions before the trial Court.

7. Merely, because the petitioner deposit the said amount, it would not amount to admission of her guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

8. Taking into consideration the above facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions of both sides, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
