Crl.O.P.No.11633 of 2024

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The petitioner/ accused in Crime No.229 of 2024 registered by the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC with respect to an occurrence which took place on 23.04.2024 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that every year there is a festival being conducted by Sri Murugan Theerthakavadi Kuzhu who will take Theerthakavadi from Kodumudi Magudeeswaran Temple and stayed at Veeratchimangalam and the next they used to go by walk to Palani Murugan Temple. On 23.04.2024, some persons were performing dance at Theerthakavadi (temple festival) near the Veeratchimanagalam Vinayagar temple. At that time, the defacto complainant had questioned the petitioner why they were dancing like that, following which, the petitioner alleged to have abused the defacto complainant and assaulted him with wooden log and caused blood injuries on his head and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner stated that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent stated that the petitioner had abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. He further stated that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking all the factors into consideration and the submissions made by both counsel and also taking note of the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
