The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 143, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.77 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to enmity regarding purchase of cow, on 18.04.2024, the petitioners scolded the defacto complainant and attacked him with Aruval and deadly weapons and thereby, the defacto complainant sustained blood injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners stated that a false case has been foisted against the petitioners and that there is a case in counter in Crime No.78 of 2024, registered by the respondent Police against the defacto complainant based on the complaint given by the 1st petitioner. Thus, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) stated that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he prays for dismissal of this petition.

5. Having regard to the nature of allegations made against the petitioners and the fact that there is a case in counter and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No-4, Salem, on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30.a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during
