ORDER

M.S.RAMESH, J.
SUNDER MOHAN, J.

The petitioner, who is the mother of the detenu V.Surya Prakash @ Surya S/o. Vincent Andrews, aged about 27 years, now confined at Central Prison, Coimbatore, has come forward with this petition challenging the detention order passed by the 2nd respondent dated 24.02.2024 slapped on her son, branding him as "Goonda" under the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug Offenders, Forest Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Slum Grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 [Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982].

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents.

3. Though several grounds are raised in the petition, the learned counsel for the petitioner focused mainly on the ground that there is an unexplained delay in considering the representation of the petitioner, dated 01.05.2024. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, though the representation is dated 01.05.2024, the same has been received by the Government only on 02.05.2024; the file has been dealt with by the Deputy Secretary on 03.05.2024 and the Minister concerned dealt with the file only on 08.05.2024 and the Rejection Letter was prepared on 08.05.2024 and sent to the detenu on 10.05.2024. It is the further submission of the learned counsel that the delay of 4 days in considering the representation remains unexplained and the same vitiates the detention order. In support of his contention, the learned counsel for the petitioner relied on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Rajammal Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, reported in (1999) 1 SCC 417.

4. As per the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner and on perusal of the records, we find that the representation of the petitioner is dated 01.05.2024, which was received by the Government on 02.05.2024 and further, the Minister concerned had dealt with the file of the detenu only on 08.05.2024 and the Rejection Letter was sent to the detenu on 10.05.2024. Thus, we find there is a considerable delay of 4 days in considering the representation of the petitioner. This delay of 4 days in considering the petitioner's representation remains unexplained.

5. It is trite law that the representation should be very expeditiously considered and disposed of with a sense of urgency and without avoidable delay. Any unexplained delay in the disposal of the representation would be a breach of the constitutional imperative and it would render the continued detention impermissible and illegal. From the records produced, we find that no acceptable explanation has been offered for the delay of 4 days. Therefore, we have to hold that the delay has vitiated further detention of the detenu.

6. In the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Rajammal's case (cited supra), it has been held as follows:

"It is a constitutional obligation of the Government to consider the representation forwarded by the detenu without any delay. Though no period is prescribed by Article 22 of the Constitution for the decision to be taken on the representation, the words "as soon as may be " in clause (5) of Article 22 convey the message that the representation should be considered and disposed of at the earliest."

As per the dictum laid down by the Supreme Court in above cited Rajammal's case, number of days of delay is immaterial and what is to be considered is whether the delay caused has been properly explained by the authorities concerned. But, here the inordinate delay of 4 days has not been properly explained at all.

7. Further, in a recent decision in Ummu Sabeena vs. State of Kerala-2011 STPL (Web) 999 SC, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the history of personal liberty, as is well known, is a history of insistence on procedural safeguards. The expression 'as soon as may be', in Article 22(5) of the Constitution of India clearly shows the concern of the makers of the Constitution that the representation, made on behalf of the detenu, should be considered and disposed of with a sense of urgency and without any avoidable delay.

9. Accordingly, the detention order passed by the 2nd respondent, in C.No.14/G/IS/2024, dated 24.02.2024, is hereby set aside and the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detenu viz., V.Surya Prakash @ Surya S/o. Vincent Andrews, aged about 27 years, confined at Central Prison, Coimbatore, is directed to be set at liberty forthwith unless he is required in connection with any other case.
