The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 143, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioners joined together and assaulted the defacto complainant.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are an innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the victim has been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
