4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons have attacked the defacto complainant and caused grievous injuries to the defacto complainant. He further submitted that the petitioner has involved in serious offence and the investigation is at initial stage. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned counsel for the intervenor/defacto complainant submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons have attacked the defacto complainant and caused grievous injuries to him. He further submitted that if the anticipatory bail is granted, the petitioner shall tamper the evidence. Hence, he strongly opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the petitioner has involved in serious offence and also considering the gravity of offence and the investigation is at initial stage,

this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
