The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 4(1-A), 4(1)(a), 4(1)(i) of Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act, 1937 in Crime No.177 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 24.04.2024, when the respondent police was in regular patrol duty, the petitioner was found to be in possession of 52 brandy bottles. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions he would submit that without prejudice to his rights and defence, the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a substantial amount to any charitable organisation as may be directed by this Court and he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 52 brandy bottles.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. In order to curb the illegal activities of selling illicit arrack and the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner shall be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand Only) as non refundable deposit to the credit of The Chief Justice Relief fund, High Court of Madras, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

7. Merely, because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

8. Taking into consideration the above facts and circumstances of
