The petitioners herein seek anticipatory bail in Crime No.168 of 2024 registered by the respondent Police for the offences punishable under Sections 147,148,294(b),323,324 & 506(ii) of IPC and Section 4 of TN Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.05.2024, the first petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted her due to previous enmity. When the defacto complainant and her husband questioned the same, the other petitioners also colluded with the first petitioner and abused the defacto complainant and her husband and assaulted her, due to which, she sustained injuries and was admitted in hospital. Hence, this case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are nothing to do with the alleged offence. He further submitted that a false case has been foisted against the petitioners. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) for the respondent submitted that the petitioners picked a wordy quarrel with the defacto complainant and attacked her, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries and was admitted in hospital. Now, the defacto complainant is discharged from hospital.

5. Taking into consideration the nature of the allegations made against the petitioners and also the fact the injured was discharged from hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thiruvallur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for
