The petitioners, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 of IPC r/w Section 4 of TNPWH Act in Crime No.362 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that petitioners abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language, attacked with hands. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are an innocent person and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners by stating that the petitioners abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language, attacked with hands.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the investigation is almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court-I, Pollachi on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.
