The petition is to amend the address of the respondent in the order passed in Crl.O.P.No.1812 of 2024, dated 29.02.2024.

2. The Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that in the petition filed for directing the Judicial Magistrate, Gingee, Villupuram District to entertain a petition for return of property, the petitioner has shown the respondent as State Represented by Forest Ranger Officer, Gingee. Now, it is realised by the petitioner that the respondent is the Station House Officer, Anathapuram Police Station, Villupuram District.

3. This Court on perusing the order passed by this Court dated 29.02.2024 has only directed the petitioner to represent his application which has been returned by the Judicial Magistrate, Gingee. If the address of the respondent has to be amended, liberty given to the petitioner herein to make amendment in the petition before representing it before the Judicial Magistrate. No separate order to amend in a disposed application is required.

4. Hence, this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is dismissed.
