petition was dismissed on 30.05.2024. Hence, the appellant has filed this appeal.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the appellant further submitted that the appellant is arrayed as A14 and further submitted that at the time of occurrence, the appellant was not available at the scene of occurrence and further submitted that the appellant is undergoing incarceration for more than four months and prayed for grant of bail to the appellant.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the appellant and submitted that the appellant is a notorious criminal and further submitted that apart from this case, there are 28 previous cases pending against the appellant.

5.Heard the learned counsel appearing for the appellant, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor as well as the third respondent appearing as party in person.

6.Considering the fact that there are 28 previous cases pending against the appellant, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the
