T.V.TAMIILSELVI, J.,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 447, 294(b), 323 of IPC, 1860 r/w Section 3(1) of the Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of Damage & Loss) Act, 1992 in Crime No.193 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that during the Temple Festival in their Village, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and his friends, during which, the petitioner along with other accused scolded them with filthy language and attacked with hands and also damaged the windows and doors of the nearby house. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that due to wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and his friends, the petitioner along with other accused, scolded them with filthy language and attacked them with hands and also caused damages to the windows and doors of nearby house. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate-III, Thirupathur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
