2.It is the case of the prosecution that on 06.06.2024 the defacto complainant had lodged a complaint stating that the petitioners had entered into their house and entered into a wordy quarrel with them and assaulted them with hands and wooden log and the defacto complainant was taken to the hospital. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that there was a matrimonial dispute between 1st petitioner and his wife, when the family members had went for mediation at that time there occurred a wordy quarrel between them. They are law abiding citizen, no prejudice would be caused to the prosecution if enlarged on bail. They undertake not to abscond or evade due process of law. They are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Uthangarai, Krishnagiri District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent/police or the police officer, who intends to arrest the petitioners, or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioners shall deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) to the credit of Crime No.164 of 2024, before the concerned Magistrate within a period of four weeks from the date on which the order copy made ready and on such deposit, the defacto complainant is permitted to withdraw the said amount on filing undertaking affidavit and proper identification and acknowledgment;

(c) the final order in respect of the said deposit shall be passed by the learned trial judge at conclusion of trial;

(d) the 4th petitioner shall appear before the respondent police as and when required and the petitioners 1 to 3 shall appear before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m. until further orders;

(e) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(f) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
