The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the first respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 138 and 142 N.I Act in CS. No.87187 of 2023, on the file of the first respondent Police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had obtained a loan for a sum of Rs.7,77,000/- from Indostar Home Loan Limited, Hosur Branch and they paid a sum of Rs.11,327/- per month for 16 instalments. Thereafter, they extended the construction work and applied loan from Cholamandalam Investments and Finance, Hosur Branch for the purpose of extended construction work. The Cholamandalam Investments and Finance has sanctioned loan amount of Rs.12,50,000/- to them, but the said Finance Company directly paid a sum of Rs.7,71,463/- to the Indostar Home Loan Limited, Hosur Branch without their consent. Hence, they had given a letter to the Indian Bank, Shoolagiri Branch to stop the payment. In the meanwhile, the said Cholamandalam Investments and Finance Limited fraudulently filled the blank cheque bearing No.821473 for a sum of Rs.9,04,000/- and presented the same and filed a case in STC.No.92 of 2022. During the pendency of the above said case, the defacto complainant has filed another case in CS.No.87187/2023. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that a false complaint has been given against the petitioners and they have nothing to do with the said allegations. He further submitted that inter State Anticipatory bail may be granted to the petitioners to enable them to move the appropriate jurisdictional Court for necessary relief.

4. Notice has been served to the first respondent police and receipt of the same is also annexed with this petition.

5. Taking into consideration, the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant interstate interim anticipatory bail to the petitioners for a period of six weeks to enable them to move the concerned Court.

6. Accordingly, interim interstate anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioners for a period of six weeks, on condition that the petitioners shall surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Hosur,
