ORDER

Read this order in continuation of and in conjunction with order date 24.06.2024, wherein the petitioner has been given leave to correct errors arising in the writ affidavit. He presents the writ affidavit today and a copy of the same is served upon Mr.Harish, who appears for the respondent as well.

2. Since the writ affidavit contains various factual particulars in relation to the identity of persons and, their relationship with the petitioner, it is unnecessary to advert to the same in the course of this order. Hence, and in terms of G.O.(Ms).No.324, Revenue and Disaster Management Department, RA-3(2) dated 28.06.2023, the necessary applications have to be made before the Revenue Divisional Officer, as they are bleated.

4. The petitioner claims to have made an application before R1 but there is no proof of receipt. Hence, let petitioner appear before R1 / RDO, on any working day in the coming week at 12.00 noon, accompanied with a copy of his application, supporting documents and a copy of this order.
