T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 363, 366 of IPC and Section 3 read with 4 of POCSO Act and Section 9, 11 of Prohibition of Child Marriage Act in Crime No.28 of 2023, on the file of the respondent Police seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are A4 & A5 and they are the friends of A1 prayed for anticipatory bail as if they are also sailing with A1 and harassed the victim girl. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners are the friends of A1, who assisted A1. In the 164 statement of the victim girl, the victim girl has stated that she married A1. Therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners by stating that the petitioners harassed the victim girl along with A1. He further stated that investigation is completed and opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the investigation is completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Harur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties, out of which one surety should be a blood surety each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;
