considered the judgments of the High Court on merits, we do not find any reason to interfere in these proceedings. However, we leave open the question as to whether the High Court should in such cases exercise its writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution in the presence of an alternate remedy under the Electricity Act.

3. Keeping open the point to be urged before the High Court in an appropriate case, we dispose of the Special Leave Petitions.

4. Time for making the payment in compliance of the impugned order shall stand extended until 31.08.2024.

5. Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.”

2. The Apex Court has not admitted the appeal filed by TANGEDCO. However, time for making payment in compliance of the impugned order was extended until 31.08.2024.

3. In view of the said order of the Apex Court, no further adjudication needs to be undertaken. Consequently, the Contempt Petition stands closed. No costs.
