The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police states that a matrimonial dispute between the husband and wife has led to complaint against this petitioner. In this connection, summon was issued to the petitioner herein for appearance as per the dictum of the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The petitioner instead of appearing before the police, has filed this petition as if the police is harassing him and the allegations of the 2nd respondent has already been enquired and closed.

3, This Court on perusal of records finds that the complaint been received and registered for enquiry. The person who is called to participate in the enquiry cannot obstrain from participating in the enquiry, claiming that he is harassed by the police. Harassment is very vague term has to be specifically stated in the complaint how and when the harassment took place. In this petition, this Court finds nothing on that sort to presume that the police is harassing the petitioner. Except the fact that which according to the petitioner sufficient to answer the summons. Such presumption cannot be drawn by the persons who is called for enquiry on the complaint. Hence this Criminal Original Petition
