March 2019 dated 28.02.2023 and quash the same as void ab initio, without jurisdiction, arbitrary, and violative of Articles 14, 19(1)(g) and 21 of the Constitution of India.

For Petitioner : Mrs.P.Jayalakshmi

For Respondents : Mr.V.Prashanth Kiran,
Government Advocate (Taxes)

ORDER

An order in original dated 28.02.2023 is assailed on the ground that the petitioner did not have a reasonable opportunity to contest the tax demand on merits.

2. By asserting that the petitioner had entrusted GST compliances to a local auditor and that the petitioner was unaware of these proceedings until he received a letter dated 07.02.2024, the present writ petition was filed.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner refers to the recovery notice dated 07.02.2024 and submits that the petitioner is an octogenarian and was unaware of these proceedings. She further submits that the petitioner's turnover is below the prescribed threshold for GST compliances. If provided an opportunity, learned counsel submits that the petitioner would be in a position to establish that the tax proposal is liable to be dropped. On instructions, she submit that the petitioner agrees to remit 10% of the disputed tax demand as a condition for remand.

4. Mr.V.Prashanth Kiran, learned Government Advocate, accepts notice for the respondent. He points out that principles of natural justice were complied with by issuing intimation dated 18.07.2022, show cause notice dated 18.11.2022 and by offering a personal hearing on 28.11.2022.

5. On examining the impugned order, it is evident that the tax proposal was confirmed because the petitioner did not respond to the show cause notice or appear at the personal hearing. Since the petitioner was not heard before the order was issued and the petitioner asserts that he was unaware of proceedings, the interest of justice warrants reconsideration albeit by putting the petitioner on terms.

6. For reasons set out above, the impugned order dated 28.02.2023 is set aside on condition that the petitioner remits 10% of the disputed tax demand within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Within such period, the petitioner is permitted to reply to the show cause notice. On receipt of such reply and on being satisfied that 10% of the disputed tax demand was received, the first respondent is directed to provide a reasonable opportunity to the petitioner, including a personal hearing, and thereafter issue a fresh order within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of the petitioner's reply.
