T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294 b, 323, 324 of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Harassment Act, 2002 in Crime No. 25 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners attacked the victim and abused her in filthy language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He prays to allow this petition. On the other side, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits injured has been discharged from the hospital.

4. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, injured has been discharged from the hospital and also the investigation is almost completed. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate - I, Attur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the first, third and fourth shall report before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two months and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation. The second and fifth petitioners shall report before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation;

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
