defacto complainant also found bunch of Rs.100/- currency notes in it. However, during preliminary enquiry, it was revealed forged signature of Assistant Director, Geology and Mining Department and fabricated the order , as if, permission was granted on 19.02.2024 by the Assistant Director. But the person who signed this letter was already transferred in December 2023 itself. With an intention to harass the RDO, the cover with letter and money was given by this petitioner. Thus, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.On seeing the fact that, in that alleged letter, there is a signature of Assistant Director, Geology and Mining Department dated 19.02.2024, but he was transferred in the month December 2023, this Court is of the view that this case needs detailed investigation and not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
