4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and also considering the fact that since the petitioner and the defacto complainant are neighbours, if the petitioner is released on bail, he may threaten the witnesses, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
