2. The petitioner has been appointed in the 4th respondent Temple by the proposal of its Board of Trustees. The 3rd respondent who is the competent authority for approving the appointment in the approved schedule of post had accorded approval and the petitioner has also been receiving his pay in the scale that enures to the post. In the year 2010, there was a proposal to revise the pay structure and the proposal was submitted to the 2nd respondent by resolution of the 4th respondent and the 2nd respondent had also approved the same, whereby the scale of pay had been revised.

3. Thereafter, the 1st respondent had suo motu initiated revision under Section 21 of the HR & CE Act and revised the order of the 2nd respondent approving the revised scale of pay. Not stopping with this the 1st respondent had also ordered recovery of the amount paid in excess to the petitioner and the same is challenged in the proceedings.

4. The 1st respondent had proceeded on the premise that the 2nd respondent / Joint Commissioner did not have the authority to revise the pay structure and grant regular time scale of pay. However, a perusal of Rule 14 framed under Section 116 (2) (xxiii) of the Tamil Nadu Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, clearly indicates that the Joint Commissioner has a power to recommend the appointment, to confirm the appointment and the scale of pay and the findings otherwise of the 1st respondent is erroneous.

5. Further, the board of trustees of the temple has taken into consideration all the parameters and recommended the appointment of the petitioner and others into sanctioned post and for a regular time scale of pay. The 2nd respondent has approved the above as per the powers granted to him under the Act.

6. In the Writ Petition arising out of similar issue, the said Writ Petitions were allowed and the impugned orders were set aside.

W.P.No.4995 of 2010

Considering the above facts and circumstances, the Writ Petition is allowed and the impugned order is quashed. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petitions is closed. No costs.

7. It is needless to state that the amounts recovered from the petitioner on the basis of the impugned order shall be refunded to him within a period of 8 weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
