2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. 3. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police objected for granting bail to the petitioner stating that the accused/petitioner has induced the de facto complainant under the guise of securing a job for him at TNEB, had received a sum of Rs.14,80,000/- from him and when the de facto complainant asked to repay the amount, the accused cheated him by issuing dishonoured cheque.

4. He further submitted that several previous cases of similar nature are pending against the petitioner and the investigation in this case has not been completed and no recovery was made from the petitioner. Therefore, if he is released on bail, there may be a possibility of him absconding and not available for further investigation.

5. Taking into consideration the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) that the investigation in this case is still pending and also considering the antecedents of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
