The defacto complainant is a deaf and dum person. This petitioner's husband used to take the mobile phone of the defacto complainant and send some obscene messages to women. Subsequently, threatened the defacto complainant and demanded money. They also took away defacto complainant's original title deeds, taking advantage of his disability. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.It is seen that, the anticipatory bail filed by this petitioner was dismissed. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that A1 was granted bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Coimbatore. The learned Magistrate without appreciating the fact that defacto complainant is a deaf and dum and huge allegations were made against the accused, he had simply granted bail to A1, as if 8 weeks of judicial custody is sufficient. Therefore, this Court directs the Registry to call for explanation from the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Coimbatore, as on what ground he granted bail to the A1 and list the matter on 18.07.2024.

5.Considering the gravity of the offence and the fact that no recovery has
