4. Considering the above submissions and on perusing the entire materials available on record, this Court is of the view that there was no reason to reject the applications, which were filed before the learned Master. Further, in the present case, the respondent has not raised any objections, in allowing the applications, either before the learned Master or before this Court.

5. Therefore, this Court is inclined to set aside the orders passed by the learned Master and allow these applications. Accordingly, these applications are allowed. The orders dated 03.06.2024 passed by the learned Master in A.Nos.2513 & 2514 of 2024 is set aside and the delay, in representation and payment of deficit Court fee in Arb.O.P.(Com.Div.)SR.
