Special Government Pleader

ORDER

This writ petition is filed seeking a certiorarified mandamus to quash the proceedings of the 1st respondent in G.O.(2D)No.25 School Education & A2 Department dated 28.04.2010.

2. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner has reported that the petitioner is no more and that all his efforts to trace the legal heirs of the deceased petitioner and bring them on record to prosecute the case. Therefore, he requests this Court to pass an appropriate order.

3. Learned Special Government Pleader for the respondents would submit that the petitioner has filed this writ petition seeking promotion. However, since he is no more, the relief sought for by the petitioner in this

4. Considering the submission made by both parties and taking into consideration that the petitioner himself is no more and the legal representatives of the deceased petitioner have not come forward to prosecute the case, for the present, it does not survive to proceed any more to the petitioner and there is no point in getting this writ petition.

5. Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of, giving liberty to the legal heirs of the deceased petitioner to file an appropriate application as and when they come forward to prosecute this case. No costs.
