For Petitioner : Mr.A.Chandrasekaran

For Respondent : Mrs.K.Vasanthamala, GA (T)

ORDER

In respect of belated filing of annual return in Form GSTR 9, proceedings were initiated against the petitioner and such proceedings culminated in order dated 18.08.2023. Such order was carried in appeal by the petitioner by lodging the appeal on 26.12.2023. On the ground that the appeal was beyond the condonable period under Section 107 of applicable GST statutes, the appeal was rejected. The present writ petition was filed in the said facts and circumstances.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner referred to the above mentioned sequence of dates and events and submitted that the petitioner be provided an opportunity to contest the matter on merits given that the annual return was filed by the petitioner on 29.06.2023.

3. Mrs.K.Vasanthamala, learned Government Advocate, accepts notice for the respondents. She submits that the appeal was rejected because such appeal was presented beyond the condonable period.

4. On examining the impugned appellate order, it is clear that the petitioner presented the appeal on 26.12.2023 and the condonable period lapsed on 17.12.2023. The period of delay beyond the condonable period is only nine days. In the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition, the petitioner stated that the papers were handed over to the accountant for filing the appeal and that the petitioner was not well during the relevant period. Immediately upon recovery, the petitioner contacted the auditor and came to know that the appeal had not been filed. These facts and circumstances justify the consideration of the petitioner's appeal on merits.

5. For reasons aforesaid, W.P.No.18545 of 2024 is disposed of by directing the appellate authority to receive and dispose of the petitioner's appeal on merits, without going into the question of limitation, provided such appeal is re-presented within ten days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, W.M.P.Nos.20328 and 20331 of 2024 are closed.
