4.The learned counsel appearing on either side advanced their arguments in support of their claim basing on their affidavit and counter affidavit. They have raised several legal aspects in their arguments.

5.Considering the relief sought in this Writ Petition, in the opinion of this Court it is not necessary to go into all those aspects at this stage. A very short relief sought in the Writ Petition is to consider the representation of the petitioner dated 17.07.2018. In view of the same, it is appropriate to direct the respondents to consider the representation of the petitioner, in accordance with law, to meet the interest of justice.

6. Accordingly, this Writ Petition is disposed of, with a direction to the second respondent to consider the representation dated 17.07.2018, submitted by the petitioner, in accordance with law, particularly in accordance with the existing Rules and Regulations within a period of eight(8) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that the petitioner is at liberty to submit any further documents in
